Description

Perched along Capri's famous Via Tragara, Casa Amor commands some of the island's most spectacular views. This six-bedroom villa puts you right in the heart of everything that makes Capri special.

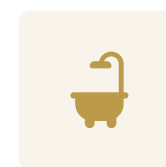

The layout works perfectly for groups. Three floors give everyone space to spread out. The ground floor houses three bedrooms, each with its own bathroom and terrace access. Head up to the main floor and you'll find two living rooms plus a balcony that seems to float above the Mediterranean.

The lower floor steals the show. A professional kitchen opens to an elegant dining room, which flows onto a panoramic terrace. This is where morning coffee becomes an event. Where dinner parties stretch late into the night.

Every bedroom tells its own story. Traditional Italian furnishings meet modern comfort. Some feature ornate metal headboards and coral-patterned textiles. Others showcase sleek contemporary design. One room includes bunk beds for younger guests. Air condition...
