Description

Wake up to ocean breezes and emerald fairways at Villa Leire, where Caribbean luxury meets the legendary Casa de Campo lifestyle. This seven-bedroom estate sits perfectly between the turquoise waters and manicured golf greens, giving you front-row seats to both.

The soaring wooden ceilings and open-air design blur the line between inside and out. White curtains dance in the tropical breeze while you gather around the 12-seat dining table. The living spaces flow naturally from one to the next, each room opening to views that remind you why you came here.

Your private pool stretches toward the ocean horizon. Four dedicated staff members handle everything from breakfast to dinner service, letting you focus on what matters, whether that's perfecting your swing on the adjacent course or doing absolutely nothing by the water.

Each bedroom offers its own retreat. Hand-carved headboards, private balconies, and bathrooms finished in warm wood and stone. The profession...
