Description

Picture this. You wake up to Caribbean waves. Floor-to-ceiling windows frame the ocean. Your private beach waits below.

Villa Leta sits in Casa de Campo's exclusive Caletón neighborhood. This isn't just another beach house. It's where 24 of your favorite people gather without feeling crowded.

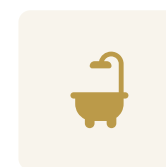

The layout makes sense. Six bedrooms downstairs, six upstairs. Each with its own bathroom. The three primary suites upstairs? They have balconies with those 180-degree ocean views everyone talks about.

The kitchen deserves its own moment. An island with bar seating where your private chef preps breakfast while you sip coffee. The industrial kitchen handles the serious cooking. Your dedicated staff, housekeeper, cook and waiter keeps everything running smoothly from 8am to midnight.

Outside is where Villa Leta shines. The infinity pool blends into the horizon. A Jacuzzi bubbles nearby. Lounge chairs dot the deck. The BBQ area calls for long dinners under the stars. Steps I...
