Description

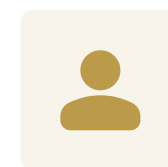

Perched on Positano's dramatic coastline, Villa Luana gives you something most properties can't: your own private slice of the Mediterranean.

Five bedrooms sprawl across this cliff-top retreat. Each one opens to that famous Amalfi blue. The kind of view that makes you forget to check your phone.

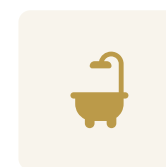

The villa blends traditional Positano architecture with modern comfort. Vaulted ceilings. Handpainted tiles. Arched windows that frame the coastline like artwork. White walls and blue accents echo the sea below.

Your private pathway winds down through gardens to sun platforms carved into the rocks. Jump straight into crystal-clear waters. Or stretch out on the terraces with their built-in loungers. The jacuzzi sits right at the cliff's edge, bubbles and sunset views included.

Inside, the kitchen showcases local ceramic artistry. The living spaces flow together, always drawing you back to those windows. Air conditioning keeps things comfortable. WiFi keeps you connected.
