Description

Perched above Positano's famous coastline, Villa Nuvola gives you something most luxury villas can't: your own private piece of the Mediterranean.

Five bedrooms sleep ten guests in a home where original 1963 architecture meets today's comfort. Stone floors, high ceilings, and handpicked art create spaces that breathe with coastal elegance.

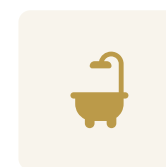

Your mornings start on terraces overlooking the sea. Your afternoons might find you at the private dock, where sun loungers wait on platforms carved into the cliff. The outdoor shower means sandy feet never touch the villa's 500 square meters of refined interiors.

A natural cave has become your personal gym. Gardens sprawl across 650 square meters, filled with bougainvillea and hidden corners for afternoon reads. The wine cellar holds Italian treasures. Each bedroom tells its own story through curated furnishings and sea views.

Walk to Casa Mele for dinner. Take a boat to explore hidden coves. Or stay
