Description

Picture yourself waking up to Caribbean breezes flowing through turquoise-painted ceilings. Villa Serenidad sits in Casa de Campo's exclusive Cacique neighborhood, where palm trees frame ocean views and your biggest decision is pool or beach.

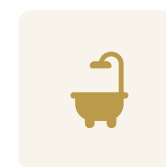

This four-bedroom retreat sleeps up to 14 guests across thoughtfully designed spaces. Two master suites feature king beds and romantic four-poster frames. Two guest rooms each offer twin queens - perfect when traveling with family or friends.

The villa's signature turquoise ceilings create an airy, tropical feel throughout. In the living areas, vaulted ceilings soar overhead while comfortable seating invites conversation. The modern kitchen opens to covered dining pavilions where your private chef serves fresh Caribbean cuisine.

Outside, your private pool stretches toward manicured lawns that meet the beach. Lounge on the stone terrace, dine under the gazebo, or walk straight to the sand. The covered outdoor living room ...
