Description

Perched on the cliffs of Nerano Bay, Villa Sophy offers something most properties can't: your own private piece of the Mediterranean. This contemporary six-bedroom estate doesn't just overlook the water, it practically floats above it.

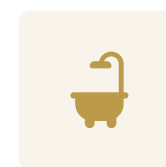

Step through arched doorways into sun-drenched rooms where white walls frame the endless blue. Each of the six bedrooms opens to terraces suspended between sky and sea. The infinity pool merges with the horizon, while boats bob in the bay below like toys in a bathtub.

Your morning starts with a choice. Take the private funicular down to your seaside platform, or descend the stone steps carved into the cliff. Either way leads to the same place: crystal-clear waters and your own slice of coastline, away from the crowds that flock to public beaches.

Inside, Mediterranean minimalism reigns. White sofas face floor-to-ceiling glass. Blue-tiled kitchens echo the ocean's palette. Modern bathrooms sparkle with natural light. Every corne...
